The specialist in wrought iron

In the beginning there was fire. Created by the power of fire, MBM wrought iron furniture is the perfect combination of traditional craftsmanship and modern processing. They combine the romantic and inviting appearance with today's demands on material and handling. Each piece is formed by hand and then treated, galvanized and powder-coated in a high-tech process for outdoor use. In this way, weather influences cannot cause any significant damage to the material, even in the long term. Since 1954 we have been producing classics made of wrought iron for your outdoor area according to our own ideas and designs.

»What we do today
determines what the world
will look like tomorrow«

Marie von Ebner Eschenbach

Furniture that last for generations

Good news first: no material is as recyclable as wrought iron and it has already been part of the recycling loop before the word was even invented. Forged iron can be melted down and reprocessed over and over again without degradation of quality. Producing steel from scrap iron requires only a quarter of the energy that would be required to produce it from ore.

This makes it the ideal, sustainable material for our furniture. MBM has been producing wrought iron furniture for almost 70 years. Most of these are probably still in use. Should you ever wish to part with them, they are evidently an ideal, domestic raw material for the benefit of future generations.

Craftsmanship Renewed

The time was right for combining traditional wrought iron frames with Resysta. The Brazil collection combines traditional furniture design with the latest high-tech materials. By not using teak (tropical wood), we are focusing on sustainability. No difference in look and feel, but not a single tree has to be felled. The furniture is weather-resistant, does not turn gray and requires almost no maintenance. Brazil is the conscious decision to use our resources responsibly. Enjoy and feel good with your contribution to sustainability.

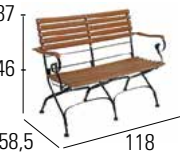

Brazil tells the success story of a conscious approach to nature. Each piece of furniture proves that it is possible to preserve the magic of natural wood appearance without sacrificing forests. A statement that seamlessly weaves together design, function, and responsibility – stylish, durable, and uncompromisingly beautiful.

No oiling, no scrubbing – instead, more time for the important things: relaxed conversations, good food, and the luxury of enjoying the moment.

The Sunset umbrellas are elegant, timeless, and functional. Here, nothing is excessive. The umbrellas are opened using a simple yet highly effective pulley system, and they are secured with a pin attached to the rope. The excess rope is neatly wound onto the hook integrated into the pin.

The umbrella stands also follow the same principle: timeless design and functionality. Large umbrellas require larger stands, but all of them deliver on their promises. Of course, there are wind strengths at which it is advisable to close the umbrella. The ground sleeve must be cemented into a correspondingly sized foundation. Once in place, it stands solidly but, naturally, lacks the mobility of our granite stands.

Our Materials

MBM outdoor materials combine functionality, durability, and style. They are weather-resistant, easy to maintain, and environmentally friendly, making them perfect for year-round outdoor use. High-quality craftsmanship ensures that these materials not only withstand the elements but also maintain their aesthetic appeal and performance over time.

Craftsmanship, the careful selection of raw materials, and recyclable components ensure that, in addition to appealing design and a long lifespan, our products also offer a high level of sustainability.

Marone Antique

Anthracite

Antique

MBM relies on high-quality wrought iron, which impresses with craftsmanship precision and timeless elegance. Choose from three color tones: Marone Antique with a warm, brown shimmer, Anthracite for a modern appeal, and Antique with a silvery patina manually applied with brush strokes. Thanks to the special powder coating, all variations are weather-resistant, easy to maintain, and particularly durable. No matter the color tone – each piece convinces with excellent design and unmatched robustness. Through the centuries-old recycling system, it becomes a material for generations.

Resysta

Durable luxury for the outdoors: Furniture made from Resysta is crafted from a sustainable alternative to tropical wood. It is made up of about 60 percent rice husks and the rest from already recycled materials. Visually, the material resembles wood, but it is more sustainable: its structure makes it resistant to external influences like sun, rain, snow, or saltwater.

MBM Tex

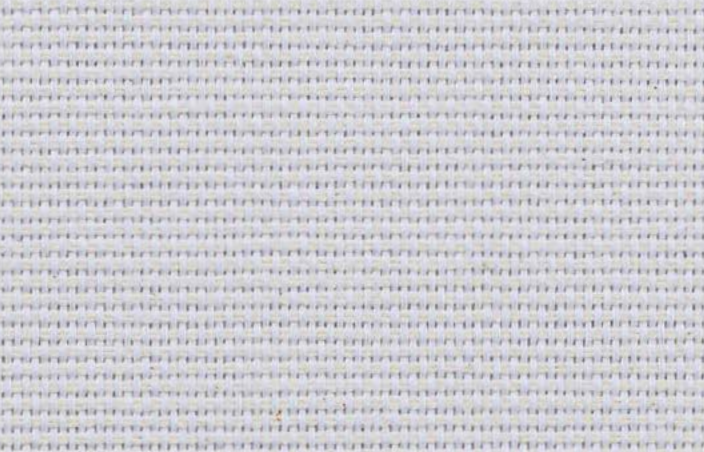

MBM Tex is an extremely durable outdoor fabric with high tear resistance. It is UV and weather-resistant, as well as water-repellent and shape-retaining, making it ideal for outdoor use. Additionally, it does not heat up in the summer sun and is breathable, enhancing seating comfort. Specifically designed for our wrought iron furniture, MBM Tex ensures both functionality and comfort.

Outdoor Fabrics

Our fabrics are characterized by their high resistance to weather conditions. They are moisture- and mold-resistant, making them particularly durable. Additionally, they provide effective protection against UV radiation, ensuring that the colors remain vibrant even with intense sun exposure.

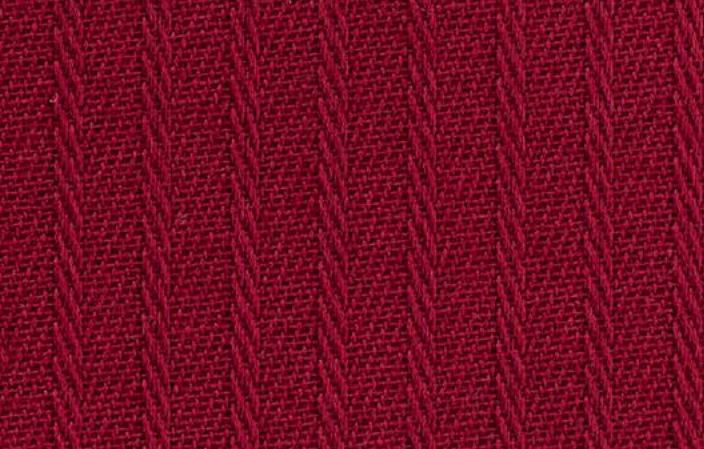

The fabrics also maintain their resistance to sunlight for an extended period. They are known for their eco-friendly properties, produced with minimal use of chemicals, and are recyclable. Additionally, the production process is energy-efficient, which helps reduce the ecological footprint.

The natural-colored plain fabric, made of 75% cotton and 25% polymer fiber, combines the charm of natural materials with modern functionality. The subtle, warm hue blends harmoniously into any environment, creating a calm, timeless aesthetic. Thanks to its high UV resistance and durability, the fabric maintains its shape and color stability even with intense use. At the same time, the cotton content provides a pleasant texture and a comfortable seating experience.

Uni Nature

A vibrant red that immediately catches the eye and adds a lively touch to any outdoor space. The cushion fabric impresses not only with its radiant color but also with its high functionality; it is weatherproof, UV-resistant, and pleasant to the touch. Made from 100% polymer fibers, it ensures durability and long-lasting beauty.

Red

Simple, stylish, and yet extraordinary – these Anthracite cushions are made from high-quality MBM Olefin. Olefin is known for its resistance to wear and tear, and it withstands even intense use. Despite its durability, the fabric feels pleasantly soft and provides excellent seating comfort. The stone-like texture, made up of white and gray elements, makes the cushions highly resistant to dirt.

Are our furniture ready for sun, rain, and snow?

Easy to care for – for permanently beautiful furniture

Our furniture is made to withstand all outdoor challenges. Rain, snow, frost, or UV radiation – none of these pose a threat to our high-quality materials. They easily endure a Central European winter without graying, splintering, or cracking.

However, like any item that is constantly exposed to the elements, our furniture also requires a little attention to maintain its original beauty. Even the best materials can be affected in appearance by environmental factors such as dirt, pollen, or leaves – much like a car that has been parked under a tree for a few summer days.

While our furniture doesn't require special care, it is recommended to clean it from time to time with a damp cloth or a mild soap solution. This minimal effort ensures that your furniture will continue to look as beautiful as you love it, even after many years.

For stubborn dirt (such as honeydew or bird droppings), we recommend our specialized cleaner. It is excellently suited for cleaning and maintaining Resysta surfaces and can be used on almost all surfaces, such as metal, plastic, wood, stone, ceramics, porcelain, and painted surfaces. In case of doubt, always check compatibility on a small, inconspicuous area first. We recommend cleaning the furniture at the end of each season.

Choosing a careful location can also help protect your furniture optimally. Special caution is recommended when placing the furniture under a shade-providing tree or near plants to avoid stubborn stains.

Covers

Additional Protection for All Situations

MBM furniture is built to withstand the elements – weather-resistant, durable, and designed for year-round outdoor use. However, to ensure your furniture remains in top condition, our covers provide the perfect additional protection. Whether it's a brief summer shower, autumn leaf storms, or the long winter break, our high-quality covers reliably protect against moisture, dirt, and dust.

Thoughtful Protection in All Weather

Our covers are made from a PU-coated textile fabric that is not only water-repellent but also breathable. This keeps your outdoor oasis clean and dry, no matter the season. Another benefit: the material is extremely easy to care for and can be machine washed at up to 30 degrees.

Important for Proper Use:

Before covering your furniture, both the furniture and the covers should be completely dry. Depending on the weather and location, condensation may form under the cover. To prevent this, we recommend regularly airing out the covers – even in the cold season – on sunny days. Allow the furniture to dry thoroughly before putting the covers back on. This helps avoid moisture damage and ensures your furniture stays well-ventilated.

With the cover hoods from Münchener Boulevard Möbel, your garden furniture landscape remains not only protected but also ready for the next season – clean, dry, and always as beautiful as the first day. Because good furniture deserves the best protection.
